RE: INSTANTANEOUS COMMUNICATION

The age of instant information is upon us. The President and other government officials must receive correct information in exact legible format immediately. NEC Facsimile can accomplish this NOW.

Crisp, clear copy can be received in twenty (20) SECONDS. An exact duplication of the original form from across the ocean, the country, or the street — instantly.

Facsimile transmissions have changed drastically in the past few years. Please take a moment to glance over the enclosed information to see some of the product innovations. Give me a call and let's discuss how NEC will increase the speed and quality with which you receive information, as well as the monetary savings you will realize.

Sincerely,
